LaBella's Grocery began in the middle sixties, a neighborhood establishment similar to a "Central Grocery." The friendly, warm place where you enjoyed shopping because your face was familiar to them, and theirs to you. LaBella's still enjoys this neighborhood - "Hi, how are you?" atmosphere that draws you back again and again to visit the deli/restaurant, and when occasions arise place your catering order.

At the deli you can order the most temptingly delicious sandwiches (among other things) and muffulettas. Their muffulettas are known far and wide. Many of the patrons, before traveling to other cities, pick up a muffuletta for a friend or relative who has in the past sampled the mighty "M."

During the beginning years - the middle sixties - Papa Joe and Joey, on Tuesday only, would make meatballs and red gravy. As their fame grew a long line would form twix the grocery aisles as ladies waited to purchase - six meatballs and a quart of red gravy. You always knew what Kennerites were having on Tuesday evenings.

In the past 20yrs, Joey and Judy LaBella, and now daughter Jenny have increased the catering portion of their business and have developed an excellent reputation as dependable all occasion caterers. Their parties range from 5 to 1,000; occasions from small intimate gatherings to extravagant company picnics and theme parties. LaBella's is full service catering, offering linen, acrylic and paper accessories, ice carvings, stainless flatware, china, servers, and bartenders.
